Sept. 30, 1924.

The first meeting of the Friends Guild for the season was held at the home of Mrs. Arthur L. King. In the minutes of our meeting of May 15th it reads that Mrs. King was to entertain the Guild at its closing meeting on May 27, but that meeting was not held on account of the death of our dear friend Mrs. Meader who was one of our cheerful members and had always been such an active worker with us.

The Pres. opened the meeting with a scripture reading and Mrs. Trustlow offered prayer.

The Secty's report of the previous meeting was read and approved. The Treas. report was read and also approved. She reported that there was $33.24 in the treasury $30.00 having been added to it from the silver tea and apron sale.

Work for the coming year was discussed and it was decided to continue along the same general lines that we have followed, helping needy families, children of the Pickerson Home, and Friends Missionaries in Western & Southern Fields. Plans for a sale were discussed and it was decided to hold the sale on the afternoon of Dec 11th at 4 o'clock. That would be the day of Monthly Meeting and Mrs. Champion and Mrs. L. T. Townsend consented to take charge of the supper, the profits of which would belong to the Guild.

The Sale is to be held in the Woodman House and the supper in the church dining room at 6.30 Mrs. Cook and Miss Gould were asked to look after the apron table, Mrs. Pope and Mrs. Church-Smith the fancy table, Mrs. Trueblood, Miss Gove and Miss Prescott the candy table Mrs. Allen and Mrs Gibson, used books.

Annual Report of the Friends' Guild for 1924.

Officers. Pres. Ethel F. Gibson
Vice-pres. Gertrude F. Smith.
Sec. Grace B. Gould
Treas. Alice J. Cook
Auditor Mary L. Townsend.

There were 18 business meetings held and 29 members enrolled. Many of the meetings were held at the homes of members and were most enjoyable.

The first work of the year was to make six bathrobes, which were presented to the church.

$10.00 was given to a sick friend.

A coat was given to a little girl in the Sunday School, who was much in need of one.

The annual gift to the parsonage for 1924 consisted of a carpet sweeper, clothes wringer and ironing board.

Flowers were sent for Mrs. Mealer's funeral and gifts of fruit and flowers were sent in four cases to members who were ill. Flowers were also furnished for several Sundays for the church platform.

$10.00 was appropriated to buy useful articles to send to some of our missionaries to the Indians in Oklahoma and one of our members donated a rug and comforts to be sent to them also.

The customary baby birth shower was presented to David Gerlach.

Nine dish towels were made and presented to the church.

Late in the year a large rug for the reception room of the parsonage was purchased, as our advance gifts for 1928.

Gifts for each child at the Dickerson Home were sent for their Christ-was true. It was decided to continue sending Grace B. Gould as our representative to the Woman's auxiliary of Morgan Memorial, and the annual fee of $5.00 was forwarded to them.

A Christmas gift of clothing, consisting of a coat hat, dress, sweater, and some other articles was given to a young girl in our Sunday school, who was much in need of clothing.

One layette was made at our Guild meetings.

The annual guest night was held at the home of Mrs. Thomas Wood early in April. Being a stormy and cold night many were kept at home, but those who were there enjoyed a very pleasant evening. There were several musical numbers, a reader from the school of expression was much enjoyed refreshments were served and all present had a sense of the cordial hospitality of the home.

A silver tea and apron sale was held at the home of Mrs. Williams on May 15th at which the children of some of the members gave a very pretty and enjoyable entertainment. Thirty dollars was added to the treasury from the sale on that day. The annual Christmas sale was held in the Hoolman House on Dec 11th and we were very much gratified to find that the proceeds amounted to $26.27 and wish to thank all our donors and patrons for their generous support.

Total receipts for the year $332.65
Total expenses for the year 147.51
Ballance on hand Jan 1, 1920, 185.14

We are looking forward to another year's work and hope that it may prove more prosperous and helpful than the last.

Respectfully submitted,
Grace B. Gould. Sec.
